

Private Music Lessons Piano, Keyboard & Voice

Patti & Allen Stock, Instructors
630-701-4036

Professional musicians, Patti and Allen Stock, offer private musical instruction in Piano, Keyboard and Voice. Each private lesson is 30 minutes in length using professional instructional method books and training in note identification, rhythmic study, technique, phrasing and musical presentation.

Schedules and Cost

The lessons are provided weekly from September through May when school is in session. The 2014-2015 lesson year will provide students with 32 individual lessons. The lesson costs are paid in four installments of $247.50, which includes the 32 lessons and recital fee.

Materials

All students use age appropriate method and technique books for piano or keyboard, including music theory geared to the student's level. The nature of study and difficulty of music for voice students advances with the student's age and abilities, and include a wide range of repertoire.

Spring Music Festival

All instrumental and vocal students will be invited to participate in a yearly musical presentation program for family and friends in the spring of each year; this year's spring music festival will be Friday, May 8, 2015. Students are encouraged, but not required, to participate.
